

In a white collar crime case, the sooner you consult an attorney, the better. At The Law Offices of Zola Wegman & Associates, our experience and outstanding reputation can make a significant difference in how your case is resolved.

If you or a loved one has been charged with a white collar crime, do not say anything to the police until you hire a lawyer. As experienced criminal defense attorneys, The Law Offices of Zola Wegman & Associates especially values the opportunity to engage the prosecution before formal charges has even been filed. If you have been implicated in, or are merely under investigation for a white collar crime, contact our office for a free consultation about your legal options.

The Law Offices of Zola Wegman & Associates have effectively helped people throughout the Los Angeles Area with white collar crimes. We represent clients facing criminal exposure for such white collar offenses as the following:

- Securities fraud
- Consumer fraud
- Insurance fraud
- Mortgage fraud
- Embezzlement or employee theft
- Credit card fraud
- Forgery of checks or documents
- Identity theft
- Prescription fraud
- Money laundering
- Internet or computer fraud offenses

The Law Offices of Zola Wegman & Associates has experience with the investigation and trial of complex criminal cases. This experience is ideally suited to the examination of the detailed documentary evidence that is frequently critical to the resolution of fraud charges and other financial offenses.

To schedule a consultation now with an criminal defense attorney experienced in White Collar Crimes, contact the Law Offices of Zola Wegman & Associates at 310-285-1766